A WARNING [EN]

For climbing and mountaineering only. Climbing and mountaineering are dangerous. Understand and accept the risks involved before participating. You are responsible for your own actions and decisions. Minors and others not able to assume their responsibilities are prohibited from climbing. Before using this product, read and understand all instructions and warnings that accompany it and familiarize yourself with its proper use, capabilities and limitations. Seek qualified instruction. Contact Black Diamond if you are uncertain about how to use this product. Do not modify this product in any way. Failure to read and follow these warnings can result in severe injury or death!

KEY:

• Risk of serious injury or death

• Risk of accident or injury

INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE

This product is designed to use some common measures for the climbing equipment depicted in the illustrations. Other possible misuses exist. Correct equipment use and the use of redundant systems will reduce some of the risks associated with climbing. If you lack experience, use this equipment under proper supervision. Always consider how rescue might be best carried out in case you or others fall.

This Type C harness is intended to provide protection against falls while climbing or mountaineering. It is intended for a belay/concerned party in a sitting position.

SIZING PRECAUTIONS

1. Ensure that you wear the correct harness size and that it fits well. Before using your harness, hang it in front a safe place to ensure you've chosen the correct size.

2. The size designation and circumference range (in centimeters) and in inches) of Black Diamond harnesses are located on the harness waist belt.

3. If you are uncertain whether your harness fits you correctly, consult with a qualified climbing instructor.

4. Check the buckles and adjust regularly during use.

CARE AND MAINTENANCE

Care your gear must not come into contact with corrosive materials such as battery acid, battery fumes, solvents, chlorine bleach, antifreeze, isopropyl alcohol or gasoline.

After contact with saltwater or salt air, always rinse and dry textile products, and rinse, dry and rub metal products.

(See accompanying illustrations)

LIFESPAN, INSPECTION AND RETIREMENT

Climbing gear must be inspected after use and after each use, and before re-use, to ensure its useful life.

When its accompanying illustrations. Retire your gear immediately if any of the illustrated conditions are found.

• Assess the useful life of climbing gear;

• Impact, both severe and mild

• Exposure to heat, sunlight, solvents, battery acid or battery fumes

• Damage and extreme conditions may shorten your equipment's useful life, and could require the gear during its first use

• Impact your gear immediately if you suspect damage during use

If you have any doubts about the dependency of your gear, or after a serious fall, retire it.

• Retired gear should be destroyed to prevent future use

In the event that your harness needs to be replaced, we recommend that you return it to the manufacturer.

• Refer to Markings Section of these instructions in order to determine the date of manufacture of this equipment

The lifespan of gear is measured from the date of manufacture, not the date of sale.
